

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. I am disgusted by their decision and will boycott our local Sinclair station, KMWB 23, and also want to register my complaint with the FCC.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their actions are a clear violation of that trust.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
